Summary: The Friend of Conservation Award recognizes an individual, business, organization, agency, etc. outside the association for outstanding contributions to the conservation of our state’s natural resources.

Eligibility: Any individual, business, organization or agency that is not directly associated with conservation districts at the local, state, or national level is eligible to receive this award. Nominations are accepted from any conservation district.

Selection: The recipient will be selected by the NMACD Awards Committee.

Award: The recipient will be honored at the NMACD Annual Meeting. They will receive a complimentary registration to the meeting, a complimentary ticket to the Appreciation Banquet, and a plaque.

Nomination Requirements:

- Nomination must include a summary of the description suitable to use in promotion of your entry.
- Nominations should consist of a brief description (500 words or less) of the nominee’s efforts to demonstrate the following:
 - Outstanding contributions to better public understanding of natural resource conservation and the goals of conservation districts;
 - The planning and carrying out of impressive land, water and related resource management practices in cooperation with a local conservation district;
 - Providing outstanding financial, personal or other assistance to a district, state or national conservation program; or
 - Exceptional service in furthering the cause of conservation districts, strengthening the conservation partnership and assisting the programs of NACD.
