

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES (Updated 6/11/24)

NATURAL RESOURCES SPECIALIST (12 POSITIONS-GALLUP, GRANTS, CUBA, LAS VEGAS, FORT SUMNER, MOUNTAINAIR, SANTA ROSA, CLAYTON, TUCUMCARI, SOCORRO, LAS CRUCES, LOVINGTON)

Performs a variety of duties related to carrying out a coordinated natural resources conservation program to assist customers meet their conservation needs for applicable USDA Farm Bill Programs.

Requires bachelor's degree or higher in biological sciences, agriculture, natural resources management, chemistry, or related disciplines appropriate to the position.

FARM BILL PROGRAM SPECIALIST (2 POSITIONS – CLAYTON, ESTANCIA)

Provides administrative support for USDA Farm Bill Programs; assists agriculture producers apply for programs; helps prepare contracts, payments, and tracks the status of contracts and payments.

Requires good computer skills including Microsoft Windows, Word, Excel; experience with basic office operations and bookkeeping; agricultural background not required but beneficial.

SOIL CONSERVATION TECHNICIAN (3 POSITIONS – CUBA, TorC, LOVINGTON)

Helps design, install, and/or recommend soil & water conservation practices such as livestock or irrigation pipelines, erosion control structures, etc., on agricultural lands. Requires post high-school education related to agriculture occupations, specialized experience, or combination of both.

RANGELAND MANAGEMENT SPECIALIST (1 POSITION-TUCUMCARI)

Inventories rangeland resource conditions and recommends improvements; prepares resource management plans; assists in developing grazing systems and other rangeland improvement practices.

ARCHAEOLOGIST (2 POSITIONS – ALBUQUERQUE, LAS CRUCES)

Conducts cultural resource, pedestrian surveys on privately owned lands; prepares reports, etc. Full-time position, must meet USDA qualifications, series 0193.

All positions are at-will, part-time or full-time, with vacation/sick leave benefits. Salary will be based on experience and qualifications of the applicant and may range from $17.01 – 28.83 per hour.

Contact Troy Hood, 505-280-8102 or Troy.Hood@q.com for information. NMACD is an equal employment opportunity employer.